

THE HERE AND WOW

The first WOW!house exhibition pops up at Design Centre, Chelsea Harbour, SW10, from June 1 to July 1. This showhouse will comprise 20 interior and exterior spaces, each created by a leading designer, most of whom have teamed up with a top interiors brand. Duncan Campbell and Charlotte Rey of Campbell-Rey (both pictured right) have collaborated with Schumacher to realise a garden room, while Rita König is working with fabric supplier GP & J Baker to create a study. Another workspace will come courtesy of Stephanie Barba Mendoza (centre), who has embarked on a solo project. Soundscapes by artist Peter Adjaye, pictured next to Design Centre managing director Claire German, will add an immersive dimension to the show. Tickets from £10. dcch.co.uk/wowhouse ▷
